

CHRIS TASSOS Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer

Chris Tassos is a 1979 graduate of Cal State Fullerton. He received his CPA designation in 1981 and has passed the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) Series 7, 28 and 63 exams. After spending 10 years with Deloitte & Touche, he has been the CFO for several mortgage and finance companies, including Long Beach Mortgage Company. Chris joined Harsch in 2003 and, as Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer, he is responsible for financing activities, risk management, accounting, I.T., and all other financial disciplines. Chris is a member of several organizations including the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Financial Executive Institute and The California Society of CPA's. He also serves on the Leadership Council for Oregon Mentors, a statewide non-profit organization.