

ROB AIGNER Senior Vice President/Regional Manager, Seattle

Rob Aigner has 25 years of commercial real experience, all in the Pacific Northwest, and is often a quoted source for commercial real estate happenings in the region. He began his career in 1981 where he became an industrial broker for CBRE (Coldwell Banker Commercial at the time). He became sales manager of the Bellevue office in 1984, and Managing Director for Seattle in 1985, where eventually he became Executive Managing Director for the Region. In 1995, he joined Colliers International as Executive Managing Director of the Pacific Northwest, where he grew the operation by over 500%, before joining Harsch in May of 2006. Rob has a B.S. in Zoology from the University of Washington where he sits on the real estate advisory board. In addition he is on the Board of Directors of Seafair, the board of the 101 club, and former board member of the Downtown Seattle Association. He is also a member and past chair of the Commercial Brokers Association, and of NAIOP. Rob additionally sits on the local board of SIOR. Rob and his family reside in Clyde Hill.