

MAGGIE GEORGILAS - Vice President, Retail North

Maggie serves as Vice President of Retail Leasing for Harsch's Northern Retail Portfolio where she oversees all aspects of retail leasing and management for regional, community and neighborhood shopping centers in the Pacific Northwest. She has over 20 years of experience in commercial real estate leasing and management. Prior to joining Harsch Investment Properties, Maggie served as a leasing director for both landlords and tenants giving her a unique perspective and in depth knowledge from both sides of the table. She worked with Developers Diversified ("DDR"), where she opened their west coast office and oversaw the disposition of a retail portfolio of 60 shopping centers as a 3rd party manager. On the Retailer side she opened 800 locations for Countrywide Home Loans over a 9 month period and later joined Circuit City as their western Director of Real Estate overseeing site selections, lease negotiations and store openings for 22 Western States.
